

Silence is Golden

if Peace is involved

Love

is not someone or thing but a series of inner worshipping ideas around worth, value and the right to a life of decency, corruption-less and virtue-full.

When I began this work, many long years prior I had a sense that the world would be perfectly safe for the future of our children and theirs and so on.

But as I grew more and more aware of that world scene something began to disturb me, more than for those of the obvious, which I had noticed, as stated, many years before now...

now when the world is in deep and troubling circumstance.

he view that I had noticed was a decline in the decency and perfect order of human appreciation for their own life ...

that of an individual, and the worth of all subjects, those of human and physical realities.

What is and was missing was a sense of a personhood a person with a dignity toward their own birth and life story and that of those to whom they associated and considered their own blood or tribal grouping.

They, these individuals of Westernised mentality had lost a sense of who they were and began to decline into some form of group that defied those values and looked toward the greedy notice of more and more without concern for who or whom were to provide such “goodies”.

They, these Westernised tribes climbing so high above those without and yet, those without appeared to know what was of a rightful stand and human appreciation of their own worth

Going on in the years ahead, was a sense that unless we are each able to contain this viral disease of more and more and me, me, me outlook then there is to begin an even greater decline into a sense of the saying, “dog eat dog” mentality where we do anything to stave off and stay alive without a care for who we deceive or deliberately declare enemies.

So where does that leave us in this present world crumbling under duress?

Where do we consider we “fit” into this new world order of more and more and less of the virtue and standards of human decency?

here do we,
that individual of worthiness, provide a newer view and perfect that olden state of values and corrupt-less ideals?

The value of our whole universal order of human decency depends on it.

The value of our own life and that of our own family depends on it.

The value of every human being on the earth ... depends on it.

So how about it?

How about thinking more and shopping and cursing less?

How about it?

The value of you, your whole world and that of the people you do really care about are involved

So what about it?

What about that behaviour 'less than'
and perfectly able to consider, adjust and reform that language of abuse and not loving embrace?

The world order,
that of human life,
is about to become eroded into something of a total debauched view ...

if we are unable to lift our own heads from the Western domination to that of an individual and not of a follower toward no mans land and off the cliff, so as to speak.

You walk in the shoes of a demon -
and then what?

You walk in the shoes of a hero -
and then what?

You walk in the shadows of deceitful behaviour -
and then what?

You walk in your own worth and then the light of your appreciation shows.
And people want to know what it is and in how to achieve it from then on.

hat choice of shoes do you daily walk in?

The value of our own worth depends on us having a really, really good look at our own behaviour and stance in the world of politicking and social order – if we are to stave off more warring and corrupting of ideas and values of moral human rights.

bservation a must

... ut where do I stand?

You thought life was good in the West but lost the value of your own worth and that of your family divorcing into a state of despair and loneliness.

And worst of all total despair toward depression, drug taking and drinking or worse, shopping without knowing why.

You thought that the ‘good life’ was about having more and more until you have at least most ...

And then what?

More does not do the trick, does not provide the happy family, the better work environment, the value of your task, the achievement loss and not gain for the better.

For the better is not quite understood in terms of your own worth and that of every other individual on earth.

The story is easy.

The powerful belief in one's own worth

*L*ove yourself as you would every other individual, without hate or malice and you will begin to shine through the good you left way behind in the rush of Western greed and dependency.

hat is all that is required.

Leave the last ten years of greed ensconced belief about your own worthless-ness ...

and gain a greater appreciation from your own life and the life you did try and begin to relish from the beginning.

hat is all that is ever required.

To look over the past and claim that you were who you were at that time.

And now, well now, you are more informed, more alert and obvious to those important factors of speech and behaviour toward your own worth and too, of those to whom you rely, consider and value.

hat is all.

Behaviour, observation, consideration and love of life, all that is of the living environment and life on earth.

Love

is not so difficult if hate is removed.
