

The Mystical Way

Sunday Nail © 2019

Introduction:

Mysticism calls me to question who am I in the solace, quietness of an ugly, but beautiful world angry and despaired, solitary, tortured and unloved?

Who is the me, mystic or angelic, solitary, thoughtful and consciously aware?

Am I this ... that I am to pray for, ask for, and meditate on?

Am I of worth to walk a mystic-type of a life here in the now, here in the ugliness and beauty of a world in unrest, wars relentless, peoples global disenfranchised?

-----0-----

I am,
but of that of a whole rules, dictates and promotes my true mystic nature?

-----0-----

Who art thou among the many,
the people of my own house as home?
Who am I at the forefront of a criminal, deceitful and corrupted, greed-entrenched society, globally as the West infiltrates and desecrates?

-----0-----

Who is the me, mystic or a heretic?

And who is in each the benefactor or mark to our own life's worth?

-----0-----

Who is the me at home in my own space quiet and unrested?

Am I of value toward myself, that of a whole, genuine mystical path, the way of a mystic?

Am I God, divine deliverer of my inward seed and journey?

God,
do bring that mystic in me alive urgently, do I pray, sing or shout, do bring about that beloved mystic in me alive.

-----0-----

You are, I am but of what part, Yours or another,
I do beseech You to advise through thought, energy divine?

-----0-----

(God, voice within?)

I am you on earth ..

and My seed is in you to develop, learn and grow forward toward Me, constantly.

-----0-----

You are the worth of who I am on earth and through earth the only way for Me to lead that form of a mystic, that of a more beloved self inside of you – the Me, the journey, the mystic.

No saint, no sword, no anger, no disrespect but love, always a love of who you are to My call.

Unfortunately, earthly existence relies on the individual to become a strength within and here does lay a confused unsettling, a courage to dispel.

-----0-----

You are the who you be now adequately to gain an appreciation of this journey this far but when time permits –

I will cry as you do;
I will walk as and when you are able;
I will speak and with you undertake that challenge where life brings you toward those challenges with heart and mind, to compassionately and with reverence, apply in reply no matter who or as to whom, in a different space, time and cultural divide.

I am in you the mystical life when love of self and thought as God in mind, brings you to value, as I am to do to and for you.

-----0-----

I am and in you can and do more so now a mystical way - and in that of this way you are on a difficult path as the world continues to defy decency, respect and ownership of those problematic areas of loss ... loss to value each upon My globe, My peoples and above all those of differences - and of the seas, rivers and waterways, the beautiful forests, the barren and brown, the golden colours, the value of all available to now break that greed and corruption in your spoken word, My word of goodness.

-----0-----

Go dear one, the mystic is alive live it peacefully and respectfully as was that initial birth, air to lungs and life then to be lived experientially to learn, develop and understand -

One is never alone on earth but cared, considered and viewed with a longing to join, in heart-full appreciation, to know others, now not earthly, guide regardless of those difficulties and painful situations as too the goodly acts of a beauteous path, courageous until death.

-----0-----

I am the life and in you reach out through your thoughts to talk, whisper and breathe that of utter love ... love beyond earthly known but a sincere, genuine and respectful undertaking.

Do not undervalue your part inside of My worth, that is of the mystical way but know ... and then in time bring her/him into a space to worship one to one linked by a time of knowing how great you are to My world of earth and beyond.

Mystical life – a difficult road.

Mystical undertaking – vile, unappreciated, cruel, callous and unkind.

Mystical breath – a most unknown knowing.

Until quietly ready to breathe with a heart to listen intent to hear and not to dismiss but endure endless that love of a divine unexplainable path –

God's Own upon earth as endured to survive, express and know ... mystics are born not undertaken as each is seeded by a God of unknown ability, act or word but to develop us, the me, the individual and singular inwardly space of divinity at the core of our being a human, earthly being.

-----0-----

I am your all and through My Word you can learn the art to listen so I, yes I, may talk intimately, quietly words of wise loving intent often to dismiss as the pain in heart too great.

And therefore I beseech you not to turn away and close that door of a most beloved connection granted to so do as you came birthed on this most difficult of difficult journey ~

Mystical ...

alive and yet to find, own and love as was My own desire for you and each on this most curious and mysterious life.
