

Can I tell - Will it help

Sunday Nail © 2020

Can I tell? Will it help?

What can I become aware of,
know more of,
be open and accepting of?

What is on offer

for the betterment of my own perspective, outlook and opportunity?

What of my own life is on offer to improve my own self, my own view and my own behaviour through and through?

What is it?

What am I able to know?

What is open to become more knowing and willing to try on or out of my life?

Am I able,

willing, open and trusting to know of my own story valuable and of worth?

Am I?

What point to become more,
say inwardly,
mind mentally conscious obvious when aware?

What is on offer here to learn of and for what purpose?

Am I a star or to star famously and value-added or not?

Why would I change?

Why develop from an advantage of an inner view or knowledge?

What is an advantage in terms of my own self worth inwardly achieved?

Are there outward advantages too?

Who is and how is that to become aware of and be seeing from my change in outlook?

-----0-----

The task, the opportunity, the advantage and worth-ability is one way to describe 'the way of being' as an on-going way in the life journey or track or mode?

But, to that as well,
very few are to ever venture as it is often considered as a form of religious type quest or pilgrimage
when in fact it is the trial of a person willing to become clear that a life, all life is far more than of what now of themselves is first and foremost 'all' ...

and in that 'all', more is to become available - to incite, to inspire, ignite, create, inform as a guiding form of insight and ability, potentially to gain an advantage in living, learning and accepting one is on a more basically honest and admirable course than prior felt, believed and understood, thought as possible, or knew available.

-----0-----

The cost to an ignorance of who they are is enormous.

The cost of an arrogance - immense, immeasurable.

The cost to a family being ill-informed, or driven by a working mantra as success – futile.

The cost of living on the earth as valuable, without a change in outlook and of owning the prior behaviour unbecoming – unachievable to fathom quantitatively.

The cost, the call, the cry, the view immeasurable toward anarchy when one is being led irresponsibly.

Irresponsible to own oneself as a valuable agent in time and history, genealogically, spiritually as consciousness - and all that of an earthly way to become aware that exists and depends on our own life story as invaluable, irreplaceable - and of immense internal ability and life times of knowledge.

The cloud under which we sit at present, mainly Westernised perception is of a nuclear impending storm from ignorant and arrogant denying incapacity of child-like brains and not adult type responsible, individual peoples.

-----0-----

The value to which this is meant ...

Ownership.
Responsibility.
Caringly wise and valuable as a component of a human heart or capacity.
Sensitivity.
Moral abilities.
Potentiality.
Father, brother, mother, sister, colour ranges, shades and cultures, beliefs and understanding, accepting not hating, division based - these are some of the thoughts brought to bear

when life is in need and nowhere left or able to outwardly achieve.

Who is the me
I am and thought as part of this history?

Who is on the dial
when hell comes calling as a warring, as violence yelling and bombs shelling and shedding?

What buttons are pressing undealt and blaming, hating and hurting?

What is in me hiding, denying,
looking and blooming too?

I am what when the end is near nuclear appears,
dust and dark, cough and splutter, no one around, what does matter?

Family relationships,
love and care, kindly acts.

Why not now fill in the cracks before too late, heal all wounds not lament later down some morbidly despairing track?

-----0-----

Time awaits for no one on the journey, the track dust ridden, hollowed out goat path.

We are all responsible.

How can I tell life is all and every part of a hell if no one ever gets the call ...

'Wake up and live'

as one who is to then value life all and every part as if no tomorrow, no one anywhere
but left on our own – how very, very horrible!

That's it! ... Will it actually matter?
Yes, it will.

Do take out a little moment NOW to reflect how much is optimum, even though you a tiny worldly speck, to own more of your life is now available ... what now are you to do?

Love of self or blame another for your upheaval, your mistake, your inabilities, your every 'downer' up to now, instead ... accepting life is just that – learning to love each and every daily learning step.
