

Cosmic Reality

Sunday Nail © 2020

Who am I,

the God-centred self within,
where life is being lived ardently, faithfully and strongly?
But I am not so on the outer side of my own self,
that of a human and physical being.

Why Lord? Why God?
Why Cosmic Reality?
Why hidden? Why left?

Why not whole

as is one is blessed?

-----0-----

Why no hint?
Why no notion, idea or truth?
Why no knowledge learned as was when first birthed?
Why no inner-sight-full-ness?
Why no more knowledge beyond the outer world at best?
Why no understanding of who we are as preciousness?
Why, why so - when life is such a little while on earth before die again, earth as dust?

-----0-----

Why no inner-sight-full-ness?

I am the story. I am the text.

I am the voyage, courage as a test at best.

I am the advent upon which time is of the essence prior to a time which is classed, 'the end'.

I am, it said when young and innocent.

I am

that of a life in you
to find, explore and invest.

I am your own self beautiful.

I am the joy of having to live in and through Me.

I am the joy, so fill into yourself love
as a deeply felt comfort prior all that of a struggle so knowledge and peace can be felt.

I am and in Me you are and can know when or where-ever life does take you come and be sharing as to listen for in Me.

I am your own specific guidance to live as and when that source wants of you to review, shift and enter that of a solace, a place within where I am to give knowledge as faith, as belief -

Because

to become a traveller,
a Cosmic Reality
of a source to live by ...

then it does require knowledge,
peace and to stand fast
to allow your new path to follow
be no longer to fear, but challenge of course, but to do so with forthright knowing,

experience too,
that you are actually a part of a whole, the Universe too.

You are the soul traveller

no time or timing as history does, educationally
but as a force of energy,
a tireless upholder of a goodly, virtuous intent to provide a guidance
from those all powerful prior your own life events.

I am in you,
those of a most phenomenal sense ... a sense to know more of you exists and into that a life of a unification can and does allow,
fully appreciative, human wholeness.

I am all and in you can become real to give a more balanced life or lived ideal.

I am the value, pride inside in place to draw on and live by

Because

in you I can too become one ... one of presence, peace and acclaim that we are ones who are of a Cosmic Reality to now live by.

No hint. No further dispute.
No more horror
this that I am is now in you to fully repute.

-----0-----

Can it be true, I am in You?

Yes, is the answer, as is others too,
people of all form, frame, idea or understanding.

Because

this is life and in how to live;
this is human and being physical,
but earthly
as part of a universe, a cosmic reality to live harmoniously as one ...

one humanity,
one human and individual hope
to be recognised
so consciously we can in fact plant a seed, rich to share, show and/or impart.

-----0-----

Keep ever constant

to love living now
knowing those of difficulties, challenges immense
but too of goodly behaviour
and in how to oneself and others speak.

-----0-----

Keep, keep ever constant within that voice as is My own to live as a human and cosmic being.

Peacefulness

is what in us is best
and too is blessed.

Peacefulness

to love what in us
is found, formed
and of completeness.
