

God the Invisible Presence

Sunday Nail © 2021

It took a great deal of courage to admit, I was part of consciousness as a God-like source, as all on earth and beyond.

And in that, there is a presence invisible of past ancestral and non physical living in us all, historically present, invisibly able, to connect as such because of a mind to a mind incredible thread -

A type of energy electrical, ether type of source or force.

A genuine type of energetic field because as a being of an earthly life, we have an ability to communicate without any need to plug in or light up.

The value of course is so often an unknown ability taken for granted
as those thoughts of unique quality.

Thoughts

as a vision, dream or feeling, sensed as a touch ... but ever so deeply to not forget but plant as if love as so very part of It, that connection beyond the normal, usual, ordinary and physical.

We come

as a newly bundled up unique parcel crammed prior in a womb and umbilical-ly threaded and fed to grow: then dated and stamped arrive, cut from prior to now,
life as earth as breath survive and grow.

But in that, of a phase, what are we here to learn, express or view?

What type of being in the mind comes too?

The life is a powerfully expressive place and space, earthly placed,
without any form or map to take or shape.

But what if in each a seed, a type of universal, quantum, physical connection exists:
a God-like whatever beyond source, connecting us to undertake to know, gain from and show
of benefit for all prior, now and future too?

What if ...

we are a clone-like being, generational and ever more so, a consciousness pool speck of life, prior knowing but with the ability to learn and grow in a physical being a new life on earth to form far more knowledge and far more humility and far more meaning, purpose and ability, creatively placed to learn – love is what this human existence is to become,

to overcome past views of horrible war-like happenings and vile attitudes and sources of misery?

What if ...

all we are and do
was to begin to quietly talk to ourself about what I am on earth meant to be or do?

It takes ...

enormous courage

to step aside from the previous life fed by propaganda, self serving drone-like beasts who care less but want more and more of greedy need at our expense.

It takes ...

a life of worth to become far more observant, reflective, thoughtful and objective.

It is not an instant fix to love oneself especially in the West.

Sure thing, exceptionalism but that is of a tribal notion and nothing but of idle arrogance, ignorant of a life worthy and worthwhile.

The fact that a God is an invisible presence means we are already able to attain any one thing about a life - our own.

For in a mind as a conscious being

we have a connection as D.N.A. type link to all ever required to draw upon and to even have as an ally each day - from day one.

It takes ...
the dedicated curiosity of an individual to question endlessly:

Who I am?

What do I do?

Who is the voice inside the mind - of where?

No idea.

Who is this me, earthly physical and uniquely formed?

Who am I when first born?

And to what extent am I to become worthy and invaluable as myself without a world outside expecting of me when too incapable at times or fearful?

The whole of a life –
curiosity, uncertainty, unfolding mystery.

But is that not so questionable to get to observe, experience and learn if life is more the personal, individual exceptional, God-like presence, invisibly entwined, like the air as ether and quantum, universal or Cosmic consciousness of which we have as the ultimate source to which each are so incredibly magically formed and then earth to live and breathe:
earth to exist and learn experientially.

Phenomenal ...

is what a God-like form in me is to those I share because as love invisible I am to claim myself part of this force and form, source unique because without being a part, no hope to communicate with those of my own and others historically and too genealogically.

Wireless – none involved.

No App involved.

No technological apparatus.

This is a viable and reliable piece of spiritual, invisible, God-like presence, in terms of a connection, mind to a mind.

How great are you ... and It, this form of life-living endlessness of a consciousness?

What if ...

I have travelled everywhere at least on a pilgrimage or two now maybe more, but still what if we are in each the presence of something more, something great?

What if we are in fact the living of a worldly life only to discover at the end there was more and in that, the whole or benefit, the knowledge of who we truly are and in that of course, a Godly self, a part of what is in each to develop and create a more substantial life of greater benefit?
